Ashley Cox was with her husband Dimitri Marshall and her 3 kids Ethan, Emily, and Emma, and her sister Allison C. in the Coxes' living room. They were just watching TV with Ashley's friends Cleopatra VII, Haou and Judai Yuki, Jim Cook, Slim, Cooley, Danek Atlantis, Timothy Drake, Atem Sennen, El Tigre Rivera, and Valon Clark. Jaden and Cleopatra Yuki had both died by an ice dragon. And Judai almost died by the same ice dragon a few months ago. "Man, where's Yusei with our pizza? I'm starving." said Allison C. as she held her stomach because it was growling at her. "Well, he was going to go by motorcycle in the rain, so of course it would take him longer than usual. Besides, he volunteered to get our food." said Atem. "You worry too much, Allison C. I'm sure he'll come back safely. He's a safe motorcycle driver." said Ashley. "Well, let's see what's going on in the news. I don't want to watch the same shows over and over." said Haou as he changed the channel with the remote. "Hey, we were watching that!" said Timothy. "Too bad. Now we're watching this." said Haou. "Breaking news, a motorcycle-car accident happened in Ligonier. The motorcyclist is now in the hospital in critical condition as we speak. The motorcyclist was identified as Yusei Fudo." said the news reporter. Haou turned off the TV and dropped the remote. "Let's hit the road." said El Tigre. "I'll fly to the hospital." said Danek as he took off. Everyone followed close behind him by car.

2. Chapter 2

When everyone made it to the hospital, everyone was in the waiting room, waiting for the results from the doctor. "What if Yusei doesn't make it through this? What if he actually dies?" asked Allison C.

while pacing around the room. "Ashley, I just realized something. This is just like when we first met Yusei. Except he didn't die." said Dimitri. "You're right." said Ashley. A few minutes later, the doctor came in. "Please tell me he's going to be alright." said Allison C. "I'm sorry to say this, but Mr. Fudo won't be able to make it. He has a major wound on his stomach from the accident. If you want to see him one more time, you can. Just follow me." said the doctor. Everyone followed him to Yusei's hospital room. "I'll leave you alone for a few minutes and then I'll have to ask you to leave." said the doctor as he left and closed the door. "Yusei was my best friend." said Judai as he cried. "I usually count on Yusei to give me some good advice, but now I can't." said Ashley. "Don't worry, Ashley. I give good advice, too." said Danek. "And me." said Jim. "Thanks guys." said Ashley. "Well, another one dead. Yay." said Haou. "Haou, you don't have a heart at all. 3 of our friends have died, and you don't even care." said Dimitri. "When you see death a lot, you get used to it. People die every day, Dimitri." said Haou. "Well, the doctor will ask us to leave in about a minute, so we better get going." said Slim. Everyone began to leave, except for Allison C. "I'll never forget you, Yusei. Thank you for everything." said Allison C. Then she rejoined her friends and sister.

3. Chapter 3

A few days later, everyone attended Yusei's funeral at the church. "Well, I will say this. Yusei lived a pretty good life. And he knows that he's not alone. He's got Jaden and Cleopatra to keep him company." said El Tigre. "You're right, El Tigre. Never thought of it that way." said Timothy. "Dad, will Uncle Yusei join Uncle Jaden and Aunt Cleopatra in heaven?" asked Emma to Ashley. "You know what, dear? I think he will." said Ashley. A few hours later, everyone was about to leave for home. "Judai, we're about to leave. Come on." said Slim. "Alright." said Judai as he rejoined the gang.
